

Donna Gallegos

Professional Bio

Donna has the unique opportunity as an art teacher to work with children K-8 at St. Charles. This allows her to develop the child as an artist, building on what they learn from year to year. Mrs. Gallegos began her career at St. Charles in 1994. She is a product of catholic schools having attended Our Lady of Assumption and graduating from St. Pius in 1984. She received her BA in Art Education with distinction from UNM. Her art emphasis in college was Japanese Porcelain. While attending the university, she worked as a technician at the State Labs in Organic Chemistry. She also worked as a director with Camp Fire Boys and Girls and did some substitute teaching with APS. She volunteers within the art community judging art shows and displaying the students work in the NM Arts and Crafts Fair and State Fair School Art Display. In the future, she hopes to continue her education with a master's degree in Art Education.

Educational Philosophy

Throughout her life, art has been a joyful and exhilarating experience. The sense of accomplishment and pride one feels when creating something special and unique is a feeling I believe all children should have the opportunity to experience. She strives to be a teacher who can help students reach that sense of accomplishment.
