

Nancy J. Searle

Professional Bio

Nancy Searle has worked in the area of accounting for 30 years. She works at St. Charles because it is fun. She has been the chief accountant in schools, production studios, churches, advertising, medical firm. She began working as a young girl in the gladiola fields being responsible for weeding, sorting bulbs and picking the flowers. She has received numerous commendations for her work at St. Charles for having the best kept books in the area. Mrs. Searle will continue to take care of St. Charles finance as long as she continues to enjoy it.

Educational Philosophy

Mrs. Searle strongly believes that the foundation for a successful life is based on the spiritual. As one develops spiritually and gets closer to God, all other things fall into place including academics. Happiness and success come easier when we realize that... "He walks with you, He talks with you and often He carries you."
