

Michelle Torres

Professional Bio

Mrs. Torres began teaching in 2000. She is excited to be teaching 5th grade and is looking forward to a very rewarding year! She holds a B.S. in Psychology and a K-8 Elementary Teaching Certificate, as well as numerous hours of continuing education related to teaching. She really feels blessed to be a part of the St. Charles Borromeo family. She feels St. Charles is a dynamic and friendly place to work and that the administration, faculty and staff have a strong work ethic and a dedication to student success.

Educational Philosophy

Mrs. Torres enjoys learning. She believes that learning should be fun. Enjoyable experiences nurture a seed toward life-long learners. Teaching is her passion and her joy. Children are truly a gift and sharing in their lives is a blessing!
